Discussion:

Cindi brought up the na.org/events site. We need to submit our event to socialmedia@na.org

Marc will create a flier with modified “save the date” card.

Cindi – we need to do something that attracts members to us that is different from every other event.

We've always done an art project with attendees. How can we do that and have social distancing occur. And somehow include the virtual attendees.

Maybe an ongoing video virtually -Uploading and Reloading the video every couple hours.
